ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 3rd April 1909

THE LATE MAJOR WILLIAMS

We regret to record the death of Major Reginald WILLIAMS, which sad event occurred on Saturday morning last at his residence, "Alton," Yelf's-road. Major WILLIAMS, who had a lengthy record of military service in India, was gazetted first in the South Wales Borderers, and afterwards joined the General Staff in India.

The interment was carried out quietly at Ryde on Tuesday, the mourners being Miss WILLIAMS (sister), and Mrs. DAVY (sister-in-law). Among those who also attended the funeral were Mr. E. R. RATCLIFFE, Miss COXFELD and Mr. J. W. JACKSON.

There were a number of wreaths from members of the deceased gentleman's family and friends.
