

1901 CENSUS: RG13/2738. folio 37. page 1.
Abode: 3 High-street, Sedgley, Wolverhampton, Staffs.

Thomas Sylvester WISE. Head. M. 49. Contractor's Foreman. Sedgley, Staffs.

Elizabeth WISE. Wife. M. 47. Sedgley, Staffs.

Elizabeth WISE. Dau. S. 26. Sedgley, Staffs.

William WISE. Son. M. 24. Shoemaker (own account). Sedgley, Staffs.

Sarah Jane WISE. Dau. S. 17. Great Barr, Staffs.

John WISE. Son. 14. Great Barr, Staffs.

Beatrice WISE. Dau. 11. Great Barr, Staffs.

Elsie Gladys WISE. Dau. 6. Sedgley, Staffs.

Wilfred Victor WISE. Son. 4. Sedgley, Staffs.

Mary WISE. Dau-in-law. M. 26. Moseley Village, Staffs.

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday March 11th 1933, page 7.

OBITUARY

The funeral took place at St. Mary's (R.C.) Church on Tuesday morning of Mr. Victor Wilfred WISE, a member of the British Legion, who passed away at 22 Harding-road on the previous Thursday. The deceased, who was only 37, succumbed to a long and painful illness. He saw considerable service during the war. With his wife he came from the Midlands to live at St. Helens three years ago, and subsequently moved to Ryde. Canon MORGAN officiated at the funeral and the mourners were Mrs. WISE (widow), Master Wilfred WISE (son), Mrs. LAWS and Mrs. EDDOWS, of Sedgley, Staffs (sisters), Mr. J. MANTLE (father-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. J. MANTLE of Nettlestone, and Mr. and Mrs. A. MANTLE (brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law), and Mrs G. BAILEY (sister-in-law).
