

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 23rd June 1894

By order of the Administrators of the Estate of the late Miss Louisa Unwin.

AMPTILL VILLA ST. JOHN'S PARK, RYDE.

Sale of the Furniture, Pianoforte, Books, a small quantity of Silver Plate, Plated articles and Household Linen.

Messrs. Wallis, Riddett, and Down have received instructions to sell by auction, on the premises, on Friday, June 22nd, 1894, commencing at half-past 1 o'clock punctually, the well-made and effects, including a walnut drawing room suite, in silk Damask' inlaid walnut sofa and occasional tables, music canterbury, ormolu and marble clocks, ornamental china and fancy articles, a cottage pianoforte in rosewood case 6½ octaves, by "Eavestaff," silk damask and green rep window draperies, rosewood liqueur case, and dressing case, pair of mahogany card tables, walnut chiffonniere bookcase with silvered panels, and a mahogany 4ft. ditto with glazed doors, rosewood pedestal secretaire chest of drawers, about 350 volumes of books, most of which are well-bound, a few oil paintings and engravings, bagatelle board, walnut chiffonniere, a dining table and enclosed sideboard of mahogany, six chairs with stuffed seats and six rosewood ditto, couches and lounge chairs, Bordered Brussels and Kidderminster carpets, iron and brass French and Arabian bedsteads with bedding, mahogany bedroom furniture, including a 4ft.6in, wardrobe, a large painted wardrobe, cheval glass, a small quantity of silver plate, plated articles and household linen, a valuable Lowestoft tea and coffee service and a gilt and painted ditto, the usual requisites of the domestic offices, and numerous other effects.

FURNITURE

May be viewed on the preceding day. Catalogues may be had of the Auctioneers, Ryde, Sandown, and Shanklin.

The house to be let unfurnished.---Apply to the Auctioneers.
