MR. F. DUNNING DIES AT RYDE

Many will learn with regret of the death at his home in Ryde on Tuesday of Mr. Frederick DUNNING, a nurseryman renowned throughout the Island for his floral artistry.

He was 90, and died at his home Marlborough Villa, Marlborough-road.

Mr. DUNNING started as a nurseryman in his boyhood days, and retained an active interest in the nurseries which were his life's hobby almost up to the time of his death.

He exhibited in many Island shows and won numerous gold medals and prizes. Mr. DUNNING was also a taxidermist.

He was the eldest surviving member of the old St. Helens Council, and a former member and Sunday School teacher at Elmfield Congregational Church.

He is survived by his widow, two sons and two daughters. The funeral will take place at 12 noon today at St. John's Church, Oakfield.
