

Jumpers House was a small country mansion with a Georgian front (above) and earlier east wing (below). Only the lodge survives, in Stourvale Avenue

Photographs: Christchurch Through the Years, by Allan White

