

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 12th July 1890

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR. T. C. WATSON

The funeral of Mr. T. C. WATSON, of Cliff House, Dover Court, Harwich, the owner of the Kriemhilda, who died so suddenly on board that yacht last week, were interred in the Ryde Cemetery on Saturday morning. The remains of the deceased were enclosed in a splendid coffin of polished oak, with elaborate brass mountings. The plate bore the following inscription:

Thomas Colclough WATSON,
Died, July 2nd, 1890,
Aged 67 years.

The service at the grave was performed by the Rev. -- STOOKS, of Blackwater, Hants, the nephew of the deceased. The chief mourners were the two Misses WATSON, Mr. Gerald WATSON (nephew), Rev. W. R. WATSON (brother), Miss WATSON, Mr. J. WATSON, Mr. --- WATSON (brothers). Rev. STOOKS, Mr. H. WATSON, Mr. WOOLCOMBE, Mr. HUTTON, Mr. J. R. FRANKS (steward). Captain COOK and the crew of the Kriemhilda also followed. The coffin was covered with a number of splendid wreaths.

Messrs. COOMBES carried out the arrangements in their usual efficient style.

---