

On 27 October 2012 Patricia Jones a great granddaughter of Fanny Taylor contacted us with the following information.

Fanny Taylor was born in Brook in November 1847. She worked first for the Seely family, later moving in her 20s with her sister Jane to a family in George Street Ryde as a children's nurse. She married gardener William Taylor at St John's Church Ryde in December 1874 and went to live in Binstead, where William spent many years working for the Sibleys in Pitts Lane.

This photograph of Fanny Taylor was taken in 1907 at Binstead.
