ARTHUR GEORGE WHITEWOOD

We regret to announce the death of Arthur George WHITEWOOD, a member of a greatly respected local family, at his residence Woodleigh, Barfield, on Sunday. He was only 30 years of age and leaves a widow and infant daughter. Shortly after Christmas he was taken seriously ill, but made a good recovery; his death followed a relapse. He was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. WHITEWOOD, of Monkton-street, and for several years he was employed in his father's decorating business. About six years ago he took over an electrical engineering business in Cross-street, which he had since personally conducted, and was one of the best known of the younger tradesman. He was interested in religious work, connected with St. James's Church and the Albert-street Mission. The sincerest sympathy is felt with the widow and bereaved family.

The funeral service took place at the Albert-street Mission-hall on Thursday, and the large congregation testified to the esteem in which he was held. Mr. G. M. COLLIER conducted the service, and Mr. R. BIGGS (organist) accompanied the singing of the hymns "Tis sweet to think" and "Jesu, the very thought of thee."

The mourners were Mr. G.J. WHITEWOOD (father), Messrs. W.J., J., and E. WHITEWOOD (brothers), Mr F. FRAMPTON (father-in-law), Mr. N. FRAMPTON (brother-in-law), Mrs. John DYER (aunt), Mr. and Mrs. B. HOLBROOK (uncle and aunt), Mr. R. PARSONS, Mr. and Mrs. B. DRAPER, and Mrs. A. DRAPER, and Mr. and Mrs. A. MITCHELL, and Mrs. J. WHITEWOOD. The Rev. E. E. GREEN was present. The grave at the cemetery was covered with numerous floral tributes.

Deceased's employees attending were Messrs. R. ATTRILL, B. HAYLES, and J. ELLIS, and the members of the staff of Messrs. G. J. WHITEWOOD and Son: Messrs. P. VINCENT, E. J. GATRALL, E.J. COLLINS, L.J. BALLARD, G. WILLIAMS, F. TYLER, W. REED, J. and T. SEARLE, and J. ALLOM. Among others present were Ald. A. ANDREWS, J.P., Ald. W. COULDREY., J.P., Mr. C. D. MUCKLOW (representing Mrs. F. C.
