DEATH OF MRS. STAMP

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. STAMP, widow of the late Mr. James STAMP a well-known master butcher, who passed peacefully away at "Kingsley," Victoria-street, on Sunday, in her 82nd year. The deceased lady had been confined to her bed for about a week suffering from bronchitis and pneumonia and she had been in delicate health for some time past.

She had resided at "Kingsley" since 1908 and her late husband carried on business for 33 years previously at 173 High-street, being one of the oldest tradesmen in the town and well-known throughout the Island. In his earlier years he was in the employ of Mr. ISAACS who occupied the shop where Mr. Rowland RUSSELL's business now is.

Much sympathy is felt for the relatives comprising three sons and two daughters, in their bereavement. The deceased's sister is Mrs. DOWN of George-street, who is in her 93rd year.

The funeral takes place today (Thursday).
