ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 18th April 1908

FUNERAL OF SURGEON-GENERAL JAMES BROWNE

We regret to record the death of Surgeon-General James BROWN, which took place at Penshurst, Shanklin, on Thursday last, in his 80th year. The deceased gentleman was well known in Ryde, having resided here for many years.

The funeral took place on Monday at Ryde Cemetery, the officiating clergyman being the Rev. FARRELL, of Shanklin. The outer coffin, which was covered with beautiful wreaths and crosses, was of English oak, with massive brass fittings, and the name-plate bore the following inscription: "James BROWN, M.D. born August 18th, 1828, died April 9th, 1908."

Messrs. COOMBES were entrusted with the funeral arrangements.
