

1901 CENSUS: RG13/1024. folio 55. page 21.
Address: 61 Arthur-street, Ryde, IW.

Harriet GOBLE. Head. Widow. 67. Laundress. Wootton, IW.

Ada GOBLE. Dau. S. 30. Laundress. Ryde, IW.

Ellen GOBLE. Dau. S. 23. Laundress. Ryde, IW.

Leonard GOBLE. Gr/son. 9. Portsmouth, Hants.

Percy GOBLE. Gr/son. 7. Portsmouth, Hants.

Joseph G. PINK. Visitor. M. 46. Clerk Railway. London.

Lucy J. PINK. Visitor. M. 40. London.

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 26th March 1908

Death Notice:-

GOBLE .. Mar. 14 at the County Hospital, Ryde, Edward Percival GOBLE (Percy), younger son of Edward Alfred GOBLE, of 61 Arthur-street, Ryde, aged 14.

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Sat 28th Mar 1908

A CHOIR BOY'S FUNERAL

The funeral of Edward Percival GOBLE, a promising pupil of the Higher Grade-school and formerly a chorister of All Saints' Church, took place last week.

The body was taken to All Saints' Church where the service was chorally rendered, the Revs. A. G. ROBINSON and C. L. BLAKE officiating. Dr. MANDER played "O rest in the Lord" as the coffin was taken out of the church.

The mourners were Messrs. E. A. GOBLE, L. GOBLE, the Misses A. and E. GOBLE, Mrs. LEVI, Mrs. HYDE, Mrs. TANSOM, Messrs. W. H. and G. GOBLE and COOMBES. Amongst the large congregation in the church were Mrs. ROBINSON, Miss DASHWOOD, Mr. W. E. GRANT, and Mr. C. RIDDETT.

Wreaths and crosses were sent by the staff and teachers of the Upper School and the All Saints' Sunday-school and Boys' Club, members of which last body acted as bearers.
