

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Sat 16th March 1918

PERSONAL WAR NOTES

Rifleman Harold BEVIS, son of Mrs. W. BEVIS, of Clydesdale, George-street is, we regret to learn seriously ill, with pleurisy in France. This is the third time the gallant young soldier has been in hospital. He was wounded in October, and had an illness of four month's duration in 1917. He has been serving in France since 1916.

Researched by
Ann Barrett