

1901 CENSUS: RG13/1235. folio 124. page 35.

Address: Gordon Villa, Ahteneum-road, Fryern, Barnet, Missx.

Edward J. GOLDING. Head. M. 50. Clothier Drapery Trade. Totteridge, Herts.

Laura M. H. GOLDING. Wife. M. 445. Newport, Mons.

Christopher H. GOLDING. Son. 12. Friern Barnet, Middx.

Gwendlyn E. C. GOLDING. Son ? 9. Friern Barnet, Middx.

Note: Gwendlyn was actually a daughter, even though she was listed as a son on the above census

In 1911, Christopher was living at Hazlewood and listed as a clerk for that establishment..

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Sat 16th March 1918

Death Notice:-

GOLDING .. Mar. 8 at 46 West-street, Ryde, Christopher Howard, only son of the late E. J. GOLDING, of Oak-park, London, aged 28.

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thurs 21st March 1918

DEATH OF MR. GOLDING

It is with deep regret that we have to chronicle the death of Mr. C. H. GOLDING, a respected employee of the Isle of Wight Railway, who passed away on Friday, after a long illness, at the age of 27. The late Mr. GOLDING was formerly associated with the late Mr. T. W. MORPHEY at Hazlewood and was an enthusiastic worker in connection with the Y.M.C.A. He was at one time Secretary of the Y.M.C.A. Bible class, and leader of the male voice choir. He was passionately fond of music and did good service in that direction. He was an enthusiastic worker in connection with open air services to which work he gave himself unsparingly. After leaving Hazlewood he entered the railway service as a clerk in the offices.

The funeral took place on Wednesday, the first portion of the service being held in the Albert-street Mission Hall, conducted by the Rev. A. I. BLANCO, of Ventnor. It was largely attended, the Y.M.C.A. being represented by several members of the committee.

Beautiful floral tributes were sent, of which we append a list: In loving memory of our dearest one, from his affectionate mother and sister; From Uncle and Auntie (Cotham); In affectionate memory from Grandma and Auntie (Merthyr Tydvil); In affectionate remembrance of one of the best, Auntie Mattie, ("Rycroft" Cotham); In loving memory, Uncle and Auntie (London); In loving memory from Mrs. BRODERICK; To one greatly respected, with deepest sympathy from all the Locomotive Staff I.W. Railway; In loving remembrance and with deepest sympathy from all his friends and the children of Albert-street Mission Hall; With sympathy and love from I. MEEK and B. CONWAY.

The wreaths were supplied by Mr. John DIMMICK.
