ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Sat 6th July 1918

DEATH OF MR. CHARLES FALLICK

It is with deep regret that we have to announce the death of Mr. Charles FALLICK, of the Lake Huron, Upton-road, Ryde, who passed away on Sunday, after a brief illness.

The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon at the Ryde Cemetery, the Rev. W. H. F. HANBURY of St. Michaels and All Angels, officiated.

The mourners were Mr. C. FALLICK (son), Mrs. C. FALLICK (daughter-in-law), Mrs. RICHARDS (sister-in-law), Mr. G. WAVELL (brother-in-law), Misses Violet and Eva RICHARDS (nieces), Mrs. JACKSON, Mr. and Mrs. MILES and Miss Violet MELVIN. There were a number of friends, including Alderman H. SWEETMAN.

The family wish through our columns to thank all friends for their kind expressions of sympathy and for flowers sent.

The Lake Huron, 51 Upton-road, Haylands, Ryde*

Opened in 1859, as a wines and spirits shop and was called The Eclipse. It was taken over by the Lake family about 1878 and given one of the "Lake" names. It has changed very little over the years and is still very much a pub for the local community. (with photograph)
