

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Sat 18th Nov 1905

DEATH OF AN AGED TOWNSMAN

An aged inhabitant is removed from the town by the death, on Monday last, of Mr. Henry Lambart BAYLY, of "Honiton," Ryde. Deceased was born on November 9th 1808, and so was in his 97th year.

During a long residence in Ryde he had become universally respected in the town. He was formerly in the service of the East India Company, and later served the office of Chief Constable of Northamptonshire.

Researched by
Ann Barrett