ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 4th December 1930

DEATH OF MRS. HARRIET JENNINGS

It is with regret that we announce the death of Mrs. Harriet JENNINGS, aged 84, which occurred at her residence 74 Arthur-Street, Ryde, on Friday. She had been ill for three weeks previous to her demise which was mainly due to old age. The deceased was well-known and liked to the town and was a widow of the late Mr. William JENNINGS, master boot maker. She leaves two sons and a daughter.

The funeral took place at the parish December on Tuesday, the Rev. Canon G. A. JOHNSTONE officiating. There were several friends present at the graveside, and the chief mourners were Mr. W. JENNINGS (son), Mrs. DOWNES (daughter), Mrs. W. JENNINGS (daughter-in-law), Miss JENNINGS (grand-daughter), Robert and Roy DOWNES, and Walter and Ernest JENNINGS (grandsons).
