

ISLAND ROLL OF HONOUR – KILLED

Flying Mechanic Gordon Idris EGGLETON, R.A.F. son of Mrs. EGGLETON of Abingdon Lodge, West-street, Ryde, was on Tuesday officially reported to have been killed during an air raid over this country. He was 21, and was employed at Wight Motors Garage before joining the local A.F.S. He had been in the R.A.F. since Christmas 1939. He was also chorister at All Saints' Church as a boy, and had won distinction at several Island musical festivals.
