

FORMER HEADMISTRESS

At one time a headmistress in Derbyshire and Leicestershire, Miss Alice May GLOVER, of 38 Melville-street, died suddenly on Friday at her home. Miss GLOVER retired to the Island 20 years ago with a friend, Miss WALTERS, with whom she lived, first at Gurnard and a few years later moving to Ryde. She was a regular worshipper at Holy Trinity Parish Church, and an active supporter of the Royal National Lifeboat Institution and the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Interment took place at Ryde yesterday, after a service at Holy Trinity.
