MR. H. T. F. YEATS

It is with regret that we announce the death of Mr. Henry Thomas Frank YEATS, which occurred yesterday (Wednesday), at his home, 5 Prince-street, at the early age of 49. Deceased, who had been ill for 17 months, joined the Ryde Post Office at the age of 19 as a telephone linesman and had worked his way up to Inspector before ill-health forced his retirement in December 1932. He was a member of the Lion Lodge, R.A.O.B., and was highly respected in the town.
