

1901 CENSUS: RG13/1023. folio 39. page 33.

Abode: St. Wilfred's, Haylands, Ryde, IW.

Claudine G. DALY. Head. Wid. 49. Living on own means. Blackgang, IW.

Alma WILLIAMS. Maid. S. 29. Lady's Maid Servant Domestic. Ryde, IW.

Annie McDOWELL. Servant. S. 24. Cook Servant Domestic. Scotland.

Fanny THOMPSON. Servant. S. 29. Parlourmaid Servant Domestic. Godshill, IW.

Rose WILLIAMS. Servant. S. 25. Housemaid Servant Domestic. Godshill, IW.

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Feb 26th 1920, page 2.

DEATH OF LADY DALY

The death occurred on Sunday morning after a brief illness, at her residence "St. Wilfred's," of Lady DALY, an influential resident and prominent supporter and worker in connection with the common weal. Her Ladyship was the second wife of the late Sir Henry DALY, K.C.B., who saw much service in India, and was one of the County Justices for the Isle of Wight. She was also a well-known follower of hounds. The funeral took place on Wednesday.

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday Dec 28th 1920, page 2.

FUNERAL OF LADY DALY

We regret to have to report the death of Lady DALY, of "St. Wilfred's" near Ryde. Lady DALY having lived the majority of her life in the Island cannot be regarded as a "true Islander." She was a great grand-daughter of Mrs. ARNOLD and daughter of James COAPE, Esq., both of "Mirables," The Undercliff, widow of General Sir Henry DALY, G.C.B., C.I.E., of Ryde House. She was renowned both for her popularity and hospitality to both rich and poor; her kindly nature endeared her to all with whom she came in contact; her interests and sympathies were wide embracing a great love of nature in all its forms. In the hunting field both during the time that Sir Henry DALY was master of the I.W. Foxhounds and afterwards Lady DALY was regarded as a sportswoman of the highest order, being one of the best and most foremost riders in the country. During the war she was most helpful in providing for and contributing to, the welfare of the fighting soldier, latterly her attentions were chiefly directed to promoting and stimulating interest in Dr. Barnado's Homes; she organised "workparties" at her house which were largely attended, a great deal of "work" being done and sold for the benefit of the Homes. Our recollections of Lady DALY will always be those of a lady who endeared herself to many, her great personality and her numerous kind acts and words to all around her, and we know how greatly she will be missed by all. Numerous kind messages of sympathy were received including a telegram from H.R.H. Princess Beatrice.

The interment was at the Cemetery in a grave adjoining that of the late Sir Henry DALY, and which was lined with evergreens. The body was enclosed in an oiled oak coffin with inscription:

Charlotte Claudine Georgeana DALY
Died February 22nd, 1920.

The funeral arrangements were entrusted to Mr. Charles LANGDON.

A service was held at All Saints which was largely attended and was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. Hugh le FLEMING) assisted by Canon SHEARME. The choir were present and led the singing of two hymns, "Lead Kindly Light," and "Sun of my Soul," the choir also rendering Psalm 23, Mr. E. G. WELSH presiding at the organ. The principal mourners were Major Victor DALY (son), Mrs. Colvin STEWART (sister), Mrs. Victor DALY, Col. Sir Hugh DALY, Brig-Gen. A. C. DALY (step-son), Mr. Cranfield COAPE-ARNOLD and Miss Alma WILLIAMS (maid). There were also present Major-Gen. FETHERSTONHAUGH, C.B., Col. E. W. CRADOCK, D.L., Col. BROWNE, D.S.O., Col. METCALFE, Col. JACKSON, Col. Denman MURRAY, the Mayor (Alderman W. H. P. THIRKELL), Major J. N. MEARES and representatives of the Isle of Wight Hunt and the Royal Victoria Yacht Club.

LIST OF WREATHS

Major Victor DALY, Mrs. Colvin STEWART, Sir Hugh and Lady DALY, Major and Mrs. Paget TOMLINSON, Mrs. Victor DALY, Brig-General A. J. and Mrs. DALY, Lieut. George DALY, Miss Susan DALY, Mrs. M. Campbell JOHNSON, and Sir Hubert and Lady WATTS, General and Mrs. R. C. COATES, Mr. and Mrs. Cranfield COAPE-ARNOLD, Miss Alma WILLIAMS, "The Household," Mrs. Margaret WHITE POPHAM and Mrs. Mary SIMPSON, Miss PURCELL, Mrs. George BRETT, Mrs. Murray DUNLOP, Col. and Mrs. CRADOCK, Mrs. Thomas F. PERROTT, Mr. Tom and Miss PERROTT, Col. and Mrs. Sherwood BROWNE, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. DAVIES, Miss CLIFFORD, Mrs. HATHWAY, Mr. and Mrs. Edward CARTER, and the Misses CARTER, Miss HAZELWOOD, Mr. and Mrs. OGLANDER, Mrs. Fleming HAMILTON, Major and Mrs. Evans LOMBE, Miss Clara KNOX, Mrs. Paul SWINBOURNE, Col. and Mrs. Arther PEEL, General Sir Edwin and Lady ANDERSON, Miss Audrey RIDSDALE, Mr. F. DISNEY, Miss K. DISNEY, Mr. Bernard Croft MURRAY, Mr. and Mrs. Odgen P. LOTCHWORTH, Mrs. Gilbert Spencer SMITH, Mrs. Edgar THORNTON, Madame O'GORMAN, Mrs. Rose Dunn GARDENER, Mrs. WELLESLEY, Capt. and Mrs. du BOULAY, Mrs. E. H. LEWIS, The Misses MCMAHON, Mr. and Mrs. Percy THELLUSSON, Mr. and the Misses AYTOUN, Major and Mrs. E. C. MURRAY, Mr. QUAYLE, Miss COLLINS, Mrs. Howard BROOKE, Mr. Edward WILSON, Mr. and Mrs. BUTT, Mrs. HERBERT and Mrs. Mersey THOMSON, Mr. and Mrs. Fred ROGER, Col. And Mrs. HOYMAN, Miss Maude WILLES, the Misses GORDON, Madame de Castel BRANCO, Members of the Ryde Habitation of the Y.H.S. working on behalf of Dr. Barnado's Homes, Lieut.-Col.

and Mrs. Denman MURRAY, Col. And Mrs. Edward RHODES, Col. and Mrs. JACKSON, Miss QUAYLE, Miss Mildred RATCLIFFE, Mr. and Mrs. George YOUNG and Miss YOUNG, Miss Mary LEES, Mr. TATTNELL, the Misses TATTNELL, Mr. and Mrs. Blair COCHRANE and Mrs. BAILLIE, Mr. and Mrs. PRENDERGAST, the Hon. Mrs. VEREKER, Major General FETHERSTONHAUGH and Mr. and Mrs Fordyce BIRCH, Col. and Mrs. A. H. CARTER.
