DEATH OF MR. W. J. TILL

Much Esteemed Tradesman and Resident

The death took place on Sunday last, at the age of 72 years, of Mr. W. J. TILL, fruiterer and greengrocer, of High-street, Ryde. Deceased, who was a native of the Borough, was much esteemed and respected by everyone with whom he came in contact with during his lengthy life. He carried on business for over 30 years. At the close of the Great War and afterwards he rendered excellent service on the War Pensions Committee, and he was a trustee and superintendent of the Sunday School of the United Methodist Church for many years, having been associated with that Church all his life. He leaves one son, Mr. W. G. TILL, with whom deep sympathy will be extended.

The funeral service is taking place today (Thursday), a service being held at the United Methodist Church at 2-39 p.m.
