CENTENARIAN WITH ROYAL MEMORIES

Miss Florence Muriel LANGDON, a lifelong resident of Ryde, has died aged 103.

Born at Player-street, where the family firm of builders is based, she had lived in Melville-street since 1925.

The firm built the children's wing of the Royal I.W. County Hospital, which was opened by Queen Victoria, an event Miss LANGDON recalled.

She was a one time secretary of the former St. Thomas's Church, Ryde, the family place of worship of the Brigstocke family.

Miss LANGDON was a keen tennis player in her younger days. Until recent years, she was an active gardener.

The funeral takes place today (Friday) at Holy Trinity Church.
