SUDDEN DEATH

The death took place suddenly on Tuesday morning, while he was paying a visit to a married daughter, of Mr. Albert LEAL, aged 66, of Bay Cottage, Bettsworth-road. Deceased who had been in the employ of Mr. L. BRING, of High-street, as a baker for many years, though latterly his health did not permit of his following his occupation, left home to visit his daughter, Mrs. CORNEY, at her shop in Upton-road. Sitting down in the kitchen he began to read a newspaper and suddenly fell forward and expired in a short time. The facts were reported to the Coroner, but after investigation it was not deemed necessary to hold an inquest.
