DEATH OF MISS MARY HANDS

A practically lifelong supporter and keen worker of the Parish Church passed away on Thursday week in the person of Miss Mary Edith Hasting HANDS, of Ingle Neuk, Queen's-road. She bore a long and painful illness with exemplary patience and fortitude, and her demise has occasioned sincere regret among a large circle of friends. She was one of a number of little girls who had the honour of handing purses to the late Princess Christian and to the Princess Louise, Duchess of Argyll on behalf of the building fund of All Saints Church. Since that time she has been actively associated with the work at that church, in the Sunday-school, and as a district visitor. The funeral took place on Saturday at All Saints, and was conducted by the Rev. H. COLLIER. Psalm xxv was chanted and the hymn sung was "Bless'd are the pure in heart." The Nune Dimittis was chanted as the cortege left the church, and Miss NUTT who accompanied on the harmonium, played "Abide with me." The mourners were Mr. and Mrs. Edward BARNES (brother-in-law and sister), Comdr. And Mrs. H. M. BARNES (nephew and niece), Mr. and Mrs. Edmund HANDS (nephew and niece), Miss E. F. BARNES (niece), and Mrs. MOORE. Several beautiful floral tributes were placed on the grave at the Cemetery. Among those present at the church were Dr. K. W. I. MACKENZIE and Messrs. Walter HILLS, G. T. W. MORRIS, and M.

C. RIDDETT, Mr. and Mrs. BARTON, Mrs. JOHNSTONE, and Miss MARVIN. Mr. C. LANGDON was the undertaker.
