I.W. RIFLES VETERAN

Mr. William Albion BISHOP, aged 84, of St. Fagan, 24 Quarry-road, died at St. Mary's Hospital, Newport, on Sunday. A native of Ventnor, he came here 66 years ago, and was employed at the head post office for 40 years. As company sergeant-major in the I.W. Rifles he served throughout the 1914-18 war. He took part in the landing at Gallipoli and subsequently in the fighting in Palestine, where he was twice wounded. He was a member of the Royal Antediluvian Order of Buffaloes, and a Knight of the Grand Lodge. He was elected an honorary life member of Ryde Social Club in appreciation of his hard work for the club over many years. He leaves a widow, one son and two daughters. The funeral took place at Ryde Cemetery yesterday. Messrs. H. V. TAYLOR and Son made the arrangements.
