OLD INHABITANT

A well-known figure passed away last week—Miss Susannah EVANS, of Lind-street. She died after a few week's illness, having attained the age of 81. She came to Ryde over fifty years ago and was the mistress of the British Girls' School. She was known in recent years for her espousal of the Tichborne claimant, and it was a favourite subject with her on every occasion. The funeral took place on Saturday.
