THE LATE MR. C. G. DIMMER

The funeral service took place on Tuesday for Mr. Cecil George DIMMER, aged 72, of 12 Winton-street, whose sudden death was reported last week. He leaves a widow. The Rev. J. SHAW officiated. In addition to the family mourners, the congregation included many Island bowlers. Among organisations represented, who also sent floral tributes, were the County Bowling Association, Ryde and District branch of the R.A.F. Association, Ryde Municipal and West Wickham Bowling clubs and the I.W. Indoor Bowling Club and the Ross Dance Club. Messrs. H. V. TAYLOR and Son made the arrangements. A contributor writes: "Island bowling is so much poorer by the sudden death of Mr. C. DIMMER, a man loved and respected by all who knew him. A native of Ryde, he was a member of the local club, until the war when his business took him to the mainland, where he was an active bowler until his return to the Island in 1965. Rejoining Ryde Bowling Club he soon made his presence felt, winning many competitions in his own club and the county. Declining health two years ago was a slight setback, but during last winter he was undoubtedly the outstanding bowler at the I.W. Indoor Bowls club. He had again been selected to play in the Middleton cup on Saturday but he died two days previously."
