

MR. A. E. MURDOCH

An Island resident for six years, Mr. Alfred Edred MURDOCH, of 19 Melville-street, died at his home on Sunday, aged 62. A dental mechanic, Mr. MURDOCH served in the R.A.S.C. during the last war. He leaves a widow and a son. The funeral service took place at the Holy Trinity Church yesterday, and was conducted by the Rev. C. P. BRYAN (deputising for the Vicar, the Rev. John SHAW). Cremation followed at the I.W. Crematorium, Whippingham. Messrs. H. V. TAYLOR and Son made the arrangements.

NB: Although the above newspaper report says that Mr. MURDOCH was cremated at Whippingham, there is no sign of his name listed in the Cremation Index.

Researched by Ann and Les Barrett