OBITUARY

By the death of Mrs. F. N. BRODERICK, at the age of 78, another link with a past generation of local tradesmen has gone. Mrs. BRODERICK was the widow of the late Mr. F. N. BRODERICK who, for many years, carried on business as an engraver in St. Thomas's Square, where Mrs. BRODERICK's genial face was once very familiar. Mrs. BRODERICK had been staying with her daughter at Shorwell, and on Wednesday last was seized with some sort of fit from which she never rallied.

DEATH

The death took place rather suddenly whilst on a visit to Shorwell last week of Mrs F. N. BRODERICK, aged 79, the wife of an old and respected townsman of Ryde. The funeral took place at Ryde on Monday afternoon, the remains being laid to rest by the side of the deceased's late husband. There were a number of beautiful floral tributes of affection. The Rev. R. NUTT officiated.
