

1891 CENSUS: RG12/890. folio 112. page 21.
Address: 7 Barfield, Ryde, IW.

William TURNER. Head. M. 60. Medical Practitioner. Luckington, Wilts.

Mary TURNER. Wife. M. 50. Islington, London.

Harold TURNER. Son. S. 19. Militia (Army). Ryde, IW.

Lydia HARVEY. Mother-in-law. Wid. 81. Living on own means. Hambledon, Hants.

Henry BRUNSWICK. M. 71. Gardener. Dunshead, Wilts.

Maria JACKSON. S. 26. Cook. Lye, Worcester.

THE ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday January 30th 1904, front page

Death Announcement –

TURNER. .. On January 22nd, 1904, at Boxmoor, Herts, Mary Elizabeth Katherine, widow of the late W.F.J. Turner, M.R.C.P., of Ryde, I.W., aged 69 years.

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday January 3rd 1904, page 4

DEATH AND FUNERAL OF MRS TURNER

Our obituary records the death of Mrs TURNER, (widow of the late Dr. TURNER, for many years a respected practitioner of Ryde), which occurred at Boxmoor, Herts, on the 22nd inst. The deceased lady had resided at the Wearde, Ryde, till within the last few years, when she left for Hertfordshire. The funeral took place on Thursday last at Ryde Cemetery, a service having been previously held at Boxmoor. The mourners were Lieut.-Col. G.H. TURNER, Mr. H. J. TURNER, Mr. H.W. TURNER (sons), Surgeon-General HARVEY (brother), Mr. C.G. VINCENT and Mr. C.W. VINCENT. The service in the chapel at the Cemetery was performed by the Rev. Canon SHEARME, vicar of Ryde.

Researched and typed by
Ann Barrett, Lydia Jackson and Marilyn Newsham