

1933 ELECTORAL REGISTER

PELLEW Eva Marion, Wheatsheaf Hotel, Brading, IW.

1947 ELECTORAL REGISTER

PELLEW Eva M., 18 Lind-street, Ryde, IW.

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday July 5th 1956, page 1.

DEATH OF MISS E. M. PELLEW

38 Years A Buyer For Messrs. Pack's

A well known figure in Island business life and for 38 years a buyer for H. Pack & Co., Ltd., Union Street, Miss Eva Marion PELLEW, of Lind Street, Ryde, died at the I.W. County Hospital on Friday.

Although a Londoner by birth, born at Peckham, Miss PELLEW came to the Island immediately after serving her apprenticeship at Islington. She was employed by Denise's Union Street, before joining the staff of Pack's where she specialised in children's clothing. Her skill as a buyer was well known both on the Island and in London, where business often took her. Her friends, who included many of her customers, knew her as "Polly."

Miss PELLEW died after a short illness following a heart attack while at work.

The entire staff of Pack's together with directors attended the funeral service at All Saint's Church, Ryde, on Tuesday. The Vicar, the Rev. R.H. BASSETT, officiated and mourners included Miss W.G. PELLEW, sister; Miss BAKER, cousin; Mrs. D. BILES; Major A.H. DABELL (managing director of Pack's) and Mrs. DABELL; Mr. T. OSBORNE (stock controller); Mrs. STAGG and Miss BLACK (buyers); the Misses TROTT, Mr. B. WRIGHT, Mrs. WEAVER, Mrs. B.M. ATYEO, Mr. DUFFETT, Mrs. A. TAYLOR, Mrs. BUTLER, and Mrs. HUTCHINGS.

Among the many floral tributes were those from Major and Mrs. DABELL, the directors of Pack's Ltd., fellow staff members, and friends at Messrs. S. FOWLER & Co.

Researched and typed by

Ann Barrett, Lydia Jackson and Marilyn Newsham