Obituary: We regret to record the passing of Mr. W. ABBOTT, at his residence Ingomar, on March 11th, after a long and painful illness, the result of a fall 3 ½ years ago. A native of Christchurch, Hants, he engaged in the building trade. He was assistant foreman for the erection of the Electric Light and Power Station in Ryde, and was for some years foreman to Messrs. T. and E.W. JENKINS, Newport. He had resided in Seaview for 23 years, and was senior partner in the firm of Messrs. ABBOTT and NASH, builders. Of a very quiet disposition, he was always ready to give advice or help. His place will be hard to fill and his passing is deeply regretted by many friends at Ryde and Seaview.

The funeral took place on Thursday week. The first part of the service being held at George-Street Baptist Church, Ryde, the Rev. H.G. DRAKE officiating. The deceased had been a worshipper at this church for many years. The Hymn "Nearer to my God, to Thee" was played as the cortege left the church. The interment followed in a brick grave at Ryde Cemetery. The chief mourners were the widow and daughter, Mrs. STONE (sister), Mrs. TURLEY (sister-in-law), Mrs. BYLES (niece), Mr. F. TURLEY (nephew), Mrs. RYALL, Mrs. LYCETT, Mr. and Mrs. W.B. NASH, Mr. H. JARVIS, Mr. E.W. JENKINS (Newport), Capt. H.A. DRUDGE (I.W. Conservative Association), Mr. E.J. CAWS (Seaview Horticultural Society), Mr. G. LACEY (Conservative Club), Mr. K. WATSON, Mr. and Mrs. J. PRIMMER, Mr. H. HAIR, and Miss M. VANNER.

The following wreaths were sent: From his wife; daughter; Sister Mary; Sister Marion; Gladys and Frank (niece and nephew); Sister Alice and niece Hope; Ernie; Hilda; with deepest sympathy and treasured memory, from a fellow worker, E.W.J.B. NOMICO; Mrs. RYALL and Miss WILSON; Mr. W. CHICK; Mr. and Mrs. W.B. NASH; employees of Messrs. ABBOTT and NASH; Horticultural Society, Seaview, committee and members; Mr. and Mrs. A. HEMINGTON RYAN; Seaview Conservative Association; Mr. and Mrs. W.W. SIRKETT; Conservative Club, Seaview; and Mrs. LYCETT, Arcona.
