

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 5th January 1950

OBITUARY
MRS. L. A. ADAMS

The funeral took place at Ryde Cemetery on Friday, following her death the previous Tuesday, of Mrs. Louisa Anne ADAMS, of St. Bedes, Salisbury Road, Ryde. She died at the County Hospital at the age of 73 years. Mrs. ADAMS served for many years as a missionary for the Plymouth Brethren in Jamtara, India, where she was in charge of a girls' school. She was the widow of the late Capt. E. H. ADAMS, who died in August, and who had served for 35 years in the Indian Army. Mrs. ADAMS and her husband were responsible for the welfare and comfort of many thousands of Service men during the war, when they were in charge of a soldiers' home on the East Coast. Mrs. ADAMS leaves a daughter, Mrs. R. F. BUTLER.

The funeral service was conducted by Mr. L. G. PRIOR, of the Plymouth Brethren.
