ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Sat 22nd November 1913

THE FUNERAL---took place on Monday of the late Mr. Thomas George ATKINS, aged 43. of Arundel-road, High Park, sexton at St. John's Church, and curator at the Cemetery, whose death from pneumonia occurred at the Royal I.W. County Hospital last week, and much sympathy is felt with the widow and her two sons in their bereavement.

The first part of the funeral service was at St. John's Church, the Revs. W. B. M. PEARSON (vicar) and H. HOLE officiating.

The family mourners were deceased's widow and two sons and father, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. BROWN, Mr. J. HOVERD, Mr. and Mrs. H. ALLEN, and Mrs. H. HOVERD, and there were also present Messrs. G. FARDELL and H. F. WADE (churchwardens), Mr. BRADING (verger), and several residents of the district. Members of the C.E.M.S. acted as bearers.

There were beautiful floral tributes from the sorrowing wife and children; father; Bill and Annie; Harry and Bess; John and Kate; Harry and Daisy; Lily; Mrs. and Miss MONTGOMERY and Mr. Robertson SMITH; Mr. and Miss BROADBENT; Mr. G. H. GALLIENNE and family; Mr. and Mrs. DANIELS; and "two friends."

Mr. BRADING carried out the funeral arrangements.

---Mrs. ATKINS and family desire to express their heartfelt thanks for kind enquiries and expressions of sympathy with them.
