

Death of Mr. H. ATTRILL. – A much esteemed townsman, Mr. Henry ATTRILL, of Sleevehurst, Monkton-street, aged 63, died on Thursday week at his daughter's home at Hendon. With his wife, he had been visiting relatives in Colchester and London, and was taken seriously ill about 10 days before his passing. For 45 years he had been employed as a plumber by Mr. H. HAIR, of George-street, but retired on account of ill-health about three years ago. He was popular member of the Town Club, and was greatly interested in floriculture. His wife, with whom much sympathy is felt, is a member of a much respected Bembridge family, the WALLIS's. He leaves three daughters.

The Rev. L.N. ST. ALPHONSE officiated at the funeral service in Holy Trinity Church on Monday. The mourners were Mrs. H. ATTRILL (widow), the Misses Mabel, Daisy and Maud ATTRILL (daughters), Messrs. C. and A. ATTRILL (brothers), Mrs. NASH (sister), Mrs. S.H. LOVELL and Miss WALLIS (sisters-in-law), Mrs. E.G. and Mrs. W.V. WALLIS (sisters-in-law, also representing Messrs. E.G. and W.V. WALLIS, brothers-in-law), Mr. W. ARNOLD, Mr. E.N. LOVE (cousin), and Mr. and Mrs. S.R.P. LOVELL (nephew and niece). Among others present were Mr. H. HAIR (former employer), Messrs. H. WITTINGTON, A. HAYDEN and H. LANGDON (fellow employees), Messrs. G. ROWE and F.A. BRICKELL (Town Club), Mr. and Mrs. A.J. BALLARD, Mr. and Mrs. LIFE, Miss CHRISTMAS, Mrs. L.N. ST. ALPHONSE, Mrs. GREEN, Miss F. WEBB, and Mr. K. GOSDEN. The flowers included those from the Town Club; the Hants Friendly Society; and Mr. HAIR and his fellow employees.

Mr. C. LANGDON was the undertaker.
