ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 30th May 1964

        Served at Jutland.- The death occurred suddenly at the Royal I.W. County Hospital on Friday week of Mr. Arthur William ATTRILL, aged 68, of 5, Player Street. Born in the town, he enlisted in the Royal Navy at the age of 15. He served throughout the 1914-18 war, saw action in H.M.S. Hercules at the Battle of Jutland, and retired after 22 years' service with the rank of chief petty officer. Subsequently he served for 12 years in Trinity House pilot vessels in the Solent, and afterwards was employed on maintenance work at Messrs. WARNER's Puckpool holiday camp. He leaves a widow, two sons, and three daughters.
        The vicar (the Rev. J. R. SHAW, A.K.C.) officiated at Holy Trinity Church and the interment at Binstead Cemetery on Tuesday. The principal mourners were Mrs. A. W. ATTRILL (widow), Mr. B. E. ARTRRILL and Mr. and Mrs. A. ATTRILL (sons and daughter-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. N. HENDY, Mr. and Mrs. B. WILLIAMS and Mr. and Mrs. S. GEACE (sons-in-law and daughters) and Mrs. M. TOMS (sister). Mr. NEWBURY (Step-father) and Mrs. NEWBURY (mother), were unable to attend through health reasons. WARNER's Camps and Mr. ATTRILL's colleagues were represented.
