ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 28th February 1963

MR. E. C. ATTRILL

Mr. Ernest Charles ATTRILL, of 18, Sherborne Avenue, Binstead Estate, died at his home on Friday. He was 60 and a native of Newport. Mr. ATTRILL, who leaves a widow, five sons and four daughters, moved to Binstead 12 years ago and was employed in the bakehouse of the Island Bakeries.

A service at Ryde Cemetery Chapel yesterday (Wednesday) conducted by Assistant Curate of All Saints' Parish Church, Ryde, the Rev. George RUMBLE, preceded interment.

Mourners were; Mr. K. ATTRILL, son (also representing Mrs. E.C. ATTRILL, widow); Messrs. D.G. and B. ATTRILL and Mr. and Mrs. R. ATTRILL, sons and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. BISHOP, son-in-law and daughter; Messrs. A., T. and G. ATTRILL, brothers; Mrs. B. ATTRILL, daughter-in-law, Mr. A. ELDRIDGE, brother-in-law; and Mr. C. JACKMAN, friend. Messrs R. COOPER, W. COOPER and GIBSON represented Island Bakeries. Floral tributes included those from the directors of Island Bakeries and staff of Island Bakeries.

Messrs. H.V. TAYLOR & Son, of Ryde, made the arrangements.
