

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 9th June 1883

DEATH OF THE REV. C.U. BARRY. – We regret to record the death of the above well-known and estimable gentleman, which occurred at his residence, Leavington House, St. John's Park, on Sunday last, at the ripe age of 79. The deceased gentleman was one of the oldest inhabitants of the town, having resided for many years in Barfield. He took a deep interest in the charitable institutions of the town, more particularly the Royal Isle of Wight Infirmary, of which he was for many years a governor. He used formerly to frequently officiate at Holy Trinity Church, and there the fact of his decease was referred to in terms of deep regret on Sunday last.

The funeral took place at the Cemetery this (Friday) morning, the funeral service being performed, we understand, by a relative of the deceased gentleman, and round his grave were a large group of friends and relatives. The coffin, a very handsome one, was covered with beautiful wreaths of flowers.

The funeral arrangements were conducted by Messrs E. MARVIN and Sons, in conjunction with Messrs VIGERS, of London.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Val Minns