ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Sat 14th February 1942

Tradesman's Death.--- An esteemed local tradesman, Mr. Robert BATTERSBY, died after a week's illness at 2 Hill-street on Monday, aged 61. For over 35 years he had been associated with a cycle business established by his father at that address. During the war he served in the Wessex Brigade of the Royal Field Artillery as a bandsman. He leaves a widow, and a son serving in the Hants Regiment.

The funeral service took place yesterday (Friday) at All Saints' Church.
