ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Sat 31st March 1956

Death of Mrs. A. E. BATT.---Mrs. Maude Augusta BATT, a resident of many years standing and widow of Capt. A. E. BATT, M.R.C.V.S., died on Monday in a local nursing home, in her 81st year. She was the second daughter of Henry TUTHILL, a solicitor and formerly town clerk of the City of Gloucester. Although she was not actively associated with any local organisations, she was extremely well known and respected. Her husband was among the best known of Island veterinary surgeons. Mrs. BATT had until recently been living at 2 Sydney Terrace, St. Thomas-street,

The funeral service took place on Thursday at All Saints' Church and the Vicar (the Rev. R. H. BASSETT, R.D.) officiated. The chief mourners were Mr. Albert BATT (son, also representing Mrs. A. BATT, daughter-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. Bernard BATT and Capt. and Mrs. Edward BATT (sons and daughters-in-law), and Mrs. NEWTON (granddaughter). The interment was at Ryde Cemetery.

Messrs. C. LANGDON were the undertakers.
