

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 7th June 1913

THE LATE MRS. MARY BEAZLEY

The remains of the late Mrs. BEAZELY, wife of Mr. J.C. BEAZELY, I.S.M., who died suddenly on Wednesday of last, were interred at Ryde Cemetery on Saturday. The service in the chapel at the Cemetery was conducted by Mr. A. ANDREWS, and the committal sentences were pronounced by the Rev. Mr. DEDAMESS. The coffin was of oak, the plate bearing the inscription:

Mary BEAZELY,
Died 28th May, 1913,
Aged 57 years.

The chief mourners were Mr. J.C. BEAZELY (husband), Mr. H.J.S. BEAZELY and Mr. H.J. BEAZELY (sons), Mr. John MEADER and Mr. Henry MEADER (brothers), Mr. J. PRIESTLEY, Mr. W.G. DAISH, Mr. H.G. JOLLIFFE, Mr. E. DAMP, Mr. H. HIBBERD, and others.

There were many beautiful floral tributes, which included the following from Father and his dear children; Bert and Ada; Robie and Frank; Sister Lizzie, from Harry, Rene, and Marcus; Harry, Henrietta and family; Dorothy and Frank; John, Emmie and little Frank; Addie, Mabel and May; Florence; Edith E. WHICHER and Jack, Mr. and Mrs. F. SHOTTER and family, Mrs. SKINNER, Mrs. TEAGUE and Alice, Mr. and Mrs. William TEAGUE, Mr. A.J. DIMMICK and Mrs. W.B. NORMAN.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Marilyn Newsham