1933 REGISTER OF ELECTORS - 18 Abingdon-road, Ryde,
BIGGS Henry Charles
BIGGS Florence

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 25th July 1942

The Late of Mr. H. C. BIGGS.- The funeral took place on Wednesday week, of Mr. Henry Charles BIGGS, a member of a well known local family, who passed away at 18 Abingdon-road on the previous Saturday, aged 75. For many years Mr. BIGGS assisted his father, the late Mr. Edward BIGGS, who was in business as a fruiterer in High-street.

The first part of the funeral service was held in St. James's Church, of which deceased was an esteemed member and a former chorister. The Rev. E. E. M. GREEN officiated and Miss COLE accompanied the choir, who sang the hymns "There is a blessed home" and "Through the love of God, our Saviour," and chanted Psalm 23. The mourners were Mrs. BIGGS (widow), Mr. F. J. ELDRIDGE (brother-in-law), Mr. A. J. J. ELDRIDGE (nephew), and Mr. and Mrs. T. T. RICHARDS and Mr. and Mrs. S. CREWS (nephews and nieces). Among members of the congregation present were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. LANDER and Mr. A. T. HODGES (the Men's Service). The interment was at the Cemetery. Floral tributes were sent by the congregation of the church, the choir, and the Men's Service.
