ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 23rd October 1924

DEATH OF MR. BLOXSOM.

We regret to record the death of Mr. Henry Allen BLOXSOM, late R.N., of St. John's Wood Road, Ryde, which occurred at the I.W. County Hospital, on Friday, 10th inst., after a long and patiently borne illness. The deceased was for some time the respected verger of St. James's Church and during the twelve months he held that office made many friends.

The funeral took place at the Cemetery on Tuesday, 14th, The Rev. G. C. RUBIE officiating. The mourners were the widow, Mr. A. BLOXSOM (brother), Mr. and Mrs. MORGAN (sister and brother-in-law), and Mrs. SENNETT. Many friends were at the Cemetery, including Mr. Claude E. SMITH, Mrs GRACE (representing St. James's Church), and friends and relatives of the widow. There were a number of beautiful floral tributes including a handsome cross from the superintendent and teachers of St. James's Sunday School.

Mr. Frank PERKIS was the undertaker.
