

MARRIAGE: 1892 Register Office, Nonconformist or RC Church (IW Registrars ref: RO38/34)
Harry BOYCE & Maud Elizabeth TILL

1901 CENSUS: RG13/1023. folio 5. page 1.
Address: Glencoe, Cemetery-road, Binstead, IW.

Harry BOYCE. Head. M. 35. Bricklayer. Isle of Wight.
Elizabeth M. BOYCE. Wife. M. 32. Isle of Wight.
Hilda L. BOYCE. Dau. 6. Isle of Wight.
Harold J. BOYCE. Son. 4. Isle of Wight.
Doris A. BOYCE. Dau. 1. Isle of Wight.
Winnifred M. BOYCE. Dau. 1mth. Isle of Wight.

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thurs 24th August 1933

DEATH OF MR. H. BOYCE

General regret has been caused for the sudden death on Monday of Mr. Harry BOYCE, of Arnold-Road, a great worker for the Methodist Chapel for which he was Society Steward for many years. Born at Havenstreet sixty eight years ago he came to Binstead early in life and had been identified with the Chapel for a long number of years. Prior to retirement some few years ago he was employed as a brick layer by Mr. H. JAMES, of Binstead. Horticulture was a hobby of his and for some time he was an active member of the committee of the Binstead Horticultural Society. He was a well know exhibitor at the local show. For half a century he was a member of the Hants Friendly Society.

The little Methodist Chapel was almost filled with mourners at the funeral yesterday (Wednesday) afternoon. The officiating clergymen were the Rev. G.A. HILLYAR-RUSS (resident Minister Oakfield-Road Methodist Church) and the Rev. Arthur TRIGGS. In the address the Rev. Arthur. TRIGGS said that the Chapel has many lovers and brother BOYCE was one of them, he belonged to a family of lovers of Christ. He was full of humour and gaiety, yet strong and independent. He was a man of peace for whom they may indeed thank God as one who had not only professed Christianity but sought to practice it.

The chief mourners were the following: Mr. H. BOYCE (son), Mrs. THORNE (daughter), Mr. and Mrs. A. WHEELER (son-in-law and daughter), Colour-Sergeant and Mrs. BEVIS (son-in-law and daughter), Mr. G. BOYCE (brother), Mr. and Mrs. W. BOYCE (brother and sister-in-law, Misses J. and W. BOYCE and Mrs. FARMER (sisters), Mr. and Mrs. P. HAYDEN of Newchurch (brother-in-law and sister), Misses R. and M. FEAST, Mr. Oscar TAYLOR, and Mr. E. BOYCE (cousins), Mr. and Mrs. P. BOYCE, Mr. and Mrs. HERRINGTON, Mr. T. BEVIS, Mr. H. PURSLOW, and Mr. R. BOYCE (nephews and nieces).

Among others present were Councillor W.E. LOWE, Mr. T.A. CLEAVER (chairman of Binstead Horticultural Society), Messrs. J.W. MEADER, A. TRAVES, S.W. LOWEN, A. HAYDEN, and G. ASH (Chapel Stewards), W. RUSSELL (Havenstreet), A.H. NICHOLLS (Hants Friendly Society) and J. GLEDHILL, Mrs. POLLARD, Mr. C.W. WHEELER. Mrs. G. TAYLOR, Mrs. GOSDEN, Mrs. WARREN, Mr. and Mrs. W.E. TAYLOR, Mrs. EASTON, Mrs. BARTON, Mrs. CHARITY, Mr. E. HAYDEN, (Apse Heath), Mr. W. BAKER, Mrs. W. FARMER and Mrs. PEARSON.

The interment was at Binstead.
