ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Sat 3rd October 1891

DEATH OF AN OLD INHABITANT.---We regret to record the death, on Thursday afternoon, at her residence in Lind-street, of Mrs. Jane BRADING, the widow of Mr. Tom BRADING. Mrs. BRADING belonged to an old Ryde family, and for many years her husband (who died some years ago) was tyler for the East Medina Lodge of Freemasons, and resided at the Masonic Lodge, John-street. The deceased acquired an excellent reputation as a caterer, and for some 20 years no ball or soiree was considered complete unless she provided creature comforts for the guests. She provided the suppers at the Infirmary ball and subscription soirees for many years. An amiable, kindly disposed woman, Mrs. BRADING had not an enemy in the world, and many of the older generation will hear of her death with much regret.
