

MARRIAGE: 11th February 1888 at St. Mary's Church, Carisbrooke
William Henry BROWN. 22. Bachelor. (father: ---)
& Ann HOVERD. 23. Spinster. (father: Charles HOVERD)

1901 CENSUS: RG13/1026. folio 62. page 17.
Address: St. Clare Lodge, St. Johns, IW.

William BROWN. Head. M. 36. Dairyman (own account at home). Carisbrooke, IW.
Ann BROWN. Wife. M. 36. Churchill, Oxon.
Bessie BROWN. Dau. 12. Carisbrooke, IW.
Alfred BROWN. Son. 10. Carisbrooke, IW.
Leslie BROWN. Son. 8. St. Helens, IW.

In 1911 Ann was living at Harcourt House, Strand, Ryde, with her husband, and her daughter Bessie. Ann's husband was listed as a Gardener.

1920 KELLY's DIRECTORY of Hampshire & Isle of Wight - page 718
BROWN William Henry, apartments, 18 Strand, Ryde, IW.

1933 REGISTER OF ELECTORS - Liddington, Arundel-road, Ryde
BROWN William Henry
BROWN Ann

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 21st January 1939

Death of Mrs. W. H. BROWN.- The death occurred on Sunday at St. Mary's Hospital, Newport, of Mrs. Ann BROWN, aged 74, who will be remembered by many in the district as the widow of Mr. William Henry BROWN, formerly of Harcourt House, the Strand, and Liddington, Arundel-rd., High Park. The deceased lady gave up her home owing to failing health on the death of her husband, a former member of the Horticultural Society, in March last, and for a time was devotedly cared for by her sister, Mrs. ATKINS, of 17 Winton-street, until she entered the hospital on medical advice about a fortnight ago. She leaves one son in America, having lost another son, who was killed in action in France in 1918, and her only daughter, Mrs. B. TAYLOR, who died about eight years ago.

The funeral was on Thursday, the first part of the service at Holy Trinity Church being followed by the interment in the same grave as her husband in the Ryde Cemetery. The Rev. L. N. ST. ALPHONSE (Vicar of Holy Trinity) officiated. The mourners were Mr. J. HOVERD (brother), Messrs. H. and G. ATKINS and G. H. S. ALLEN (nephews), Miss I. ALLEN (niece), Mrs. R. H. ALLEN (representing Mr. R. H. ALLEN, nephew), Mrs. J. GREENING (sister-in-law), and Mr. F. YELF. Those present at the church and cemetery included Mrs. H. ATKINS, Mrs. LONG, and Mr. T. RYALL, and Mrs. H. ALLEN and Mrs. ATKINS (sisters) were prevented by indisposition from attending. There were many floral tributes.

Mrs. ATKINS and the members of the family wish to express sincere thanks to all their friends for kind inquiries, messages of sympathy and floral tributes.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Kate MacDonell