FUNERAL OF OLD CONSTABLE

The funeral of Mr James John BUCKLAND, one of the oldest pensioned police constables in Ryde, who retired from the Borough Force 15 years ago, took place at the Cemetery on Wednesday 23rd, amidst every sign of respect from old comrades with whom he was held in high esteem. Deceased who succumbed to pneumonia after a short illness, was 70 years of age.

The service was held at the cemetery chapel, the Vicar (Rev. Hugh LE FLEMING) officiating. The mourners included the widow and three sons, two of whom are in the police force in other parts of the country. The coffin was born to the grave by P.S. PALMER and P.C.'s HODGES, SWANN and DEBENHAM, those following including: Ex-P.S.'s F. RYALL and S. ORCHARD, Ex-P.C.'s J. O' FLAHERTY, WARNE, NEWMAN, HAYES, WEBB, and P.C. TARRANT (Shanklin). There were several choice wreaths.

Mr. E. TAYLOR was the undertaker.
