NAVAL PENSIONER'S DEATH

The death occurred on Monday at 15 Church-Street Swanmore, of George BULL, aged 79. Deceased, who was born on Bembridge in 1835, had seen much active service in the Navy. He served on H.M.S. Tiger, Fury, and Britannic, was at the siege of Sebastopol in 1854, and on H.M.S. Russell 1854-55. He was in the Baltic on H.M.S. Retribution during the Crimean War of 1858. He possessed the Crimean medal, the Sebastopol medal with clasp, the Baltic medal, and the China War medal. After leaving the Navy he joined the London Fire Brigade in 1860, and served in it for 20 years, retiring on a pension. He held certificates from the Metropolitan Fire Brigade and the Royal Society for the protection of life from fire. He was well known in Ryde and much respected.
