

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 27th June 1914

AGED RYDE LADY'S DEATH

The Garfield Road Church has sustained a great loss in the death of one of its most un-assuming but energetic members, Miss Annie BULSTRODE, which took place at her house in Argyle Street on Sunday, after a short illness. The late Miss BULSTRODE was 73 years of age. She was a member of the Garfield Road Wesleyan Church and a leader of the Society Class of the church.

The funeral was on Thursday, and was conducted by the pastor, the Rev. J. WHITEHEAD CLEAGG, and the Rev. Thomas BRACKENBURY. A service at the church was attended by various relatives of the deceased and many members of the church, including those connected with the Sisterhood, The Society Class, and Mothers' Meeting. These also attended at the cemetery. The coffin bore the inscription:

ANNIE BULSTRODE,
Born May 20th, 1811,
Died June 21st, 1914.

There were various floral tributes from:-
Sorrowing sisters; Will, Rose and Minnie; Aunt Annie and Frances; Miss Mary CAVE; E.C. LUCAS (Southampton); Edward, Mary and Dollie (BRAMDEAU); W. HASCOTT; from the members of her Society Class; From the members of the Sisterhood; From the Mothers' Meeting. Ada and Ernest; Lizzie and Corrie; Mrs. NOTCUTT.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Val Minns