

BIRTH: 1900 Ryde (IW Registrars ref: R69/E402)
Wallace James BURDEN (Mother's maiden name GRIMSDICK)

---

1901 CENSUS: RG13/1024. folio 108. page 35.
Address: 47 West-street, Ryde, IW.

Albert J. BURDEN. Head. M. 28. Insurance Agent. Ryde, IW.
Clara J. BURDEN. Wife. M. 26. Ryde, IW.
Wallace J. BURDEN. Son. 10mths. Ryde, IW.

---

In 1911 Wallace was living at 2 Poplar Villa's, Well-street, Ryde, with his parents Albert & Clara, and his sister Hilda. His father was a Life Insurance Agent.

---

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Sat 17th April 1926

FUNERAL OF MR. W. J. BURDEN.---The funeral of Mr. Wallace BURDEN took place on Saturday, the Rev. M. Lister GAUNT conducting the service at the Baptist Church and at the graveside. A large number of friends of the deceased, who had rendered splendid service with the choir, as a Sunday-school teacher, and as secretary of the Young People's Fellowship, and was much respected in the town, assembled to pay their last tribute, and over 40 beautiful floral tributes were sent.

The mourners were Mr. A. J. BURDEN (father), Messrs. T. GRIMSDICK, G. DOWNER, and B. GRIFFITHS (uncles), G. and R. COOPER and R. BURGESS (Wootton). The wreaths included tokens from the Baptist Church and Y.P.F. and Sunday-school.

An impressive memorial service was held on Sunday evening, when the Rev. M. Lister GAUNT paid a high tribute to Mr. BURDEN's high qualities and great service to the church. Several of his favourite hymns were sung, and the choir rendered the anthem "A hymn of the homeland." Miss FOWLER presided at the organ.

---